Notes

Class Notes The Instructor meets the class as a group in Canvas, through myFSCJ, at regular, designated days and times. Your class will meet on the specific days and times listed on your schedule. The room location is listed on your schedule as 'Online-All activities online.' Live Online classes require you to be available during scheduled class meeting times. Proctored testing at an approved location may be required. Testing fees may be charged at off-campus and virtual testing locations.

Description

Drawing on the foundation of metacognition strategies, critical thinking skills, and information literacy, this course teaches persistence and high achievement skills to prepare students for success in college, career, and life. This course provides a deep knowledge of the Florida State College at Jacksonville A.A. general education degree experience by exploring fields of study and the ways in which courses from different disciplines interact to form the experience for a liberal arts education. Also included in this course are co-curricular enrichment activities from Advising, Student Engagement, and the Library and Learning Commons.
